

NAB petition 04-160 represents another attempt to limit my listening to the dictates of the corporations who control broadcast radio. I have chosen to pay for XM radio in order to select the services I want. I respectfully urge you to reject this petition as another attack on freedom of choice.